

MORE ANTI-RENT OUTRAGES.—The Albany Express says that Mr. Henry Lord, of Nassau, Notices having been made out, directed to the ten-of a note anti-renter. Here a consultation had, and at the earnest solicitation of several, he appeared friends, on account of his age, he was passed upon by his solemnly assuring them that he did not serve any more of the notices.

TEAM ON THE CANAL.—The steam-tug Hobbs left the canal basin this morning, with a crew composed of the Controller, the Auditor, Co. Commissioner Mather, several other gentlemen interested in canal navigation, on an experimental trip to Troy. The tug is intended to be used for towing on the canal. It has 75 feet keel, 15 feet beam, draws 21 feet water, and is propelled by an engine of 40 horse power. The engine was built by Messrs. Lowe & Co., for S. Denzie & Co. The wheel in the center of the boat is 10 feet in diameter, 6 feet face, and 2 feet thick. The buckets are of iron, and saucer-shaped, and are worked by a crank shaft, which is connected through a groove in the bottom of the boat. There is no swell caused by this motion, or no more than is caused by any other boat of the same size, moving at the same speed. Her movement this morning was so rapid, that she was able to tow 40 horse power 75 ton boats at the rate of three miles an hour. The manufacturers guarantee that the engine will draw 40 horse power for 1000 hours, and will last, with two tons of coal. This invention was patented by Mr. G. Parker in 1840, and the boat is now under his charge, on her way to Buffalo. Those who are acquainted with canal navigation were fully satisfied that this was a most valuable and economical addition to the entire revolution in the process of towing.

Albany Journal, Thursday.

THE PRESIDENT of the United States accompanied by the Secretaries of War and Interior, met on Tuesday, at Harper's Ferry, amid the ons of the citizens, after which they went directly to the Springs, where they arrived in time for dinner, and were warmly welcomed. At night, the president paid a visit to a ball given in honor of his rival. On Wednesday morning a committee of

ACCIDENT NEAR NORTH ADAMS.—(Continued.)—last, (as we learn from The North Adams Transcript) as workmen were engaged in blasting a hard rock, on the line of the Troy and Greenfield road, at Brayton's Factory, a mile west of North Adams village, a stone weighing a ton or more was blown several hundred feet in the air by one of the charges. It descended directly upon the roof of a house in the vicinity, cutting a hole several feet in diameter, through every floor, to the cellar, taking that white-ware furniture came in its way. A man and woman were sitting at a supper table in a room adjoining the one through which the stone rolled, and more than six or eight feet distant. The table was covered with splinters, plastering, &c., and many of the dishes upon it were broken, but the sons escaped unharmed. It is said that considerable damage has been done to property in the vicinity of the blasting rocks. The Railroad Company or the contractors are responsible for this damage.

Mason, while they were washing at a spring near the house. He then stole a horse, and attempted to escape, but was so closely pursued by one of Mr. Kiel's neighbors, that he had to leave the horse and take the river swamp. Several citizens of the County turned out to search for the murderer, and succeeded in arresting him at 11 o'clock, Tuesday night. They then tied him to a stake and forced him to death. [Sav. Georgian, Aug 4] the players' strident proclamation expressed the racial loyalty of leaders in this city, great and small, and the devotion of the white community and all others who had to any extent previously participated in its voluntarily abandoned the traffic; and now, on the seventh day of August, in the year of grace 1851, a single glass of intoxicating liquor, of any kind, or can be obtained in the city of Augusta, or in any other place in the State of Georgia. So, of events, we are informed, and verily believe, (Augusta) (Me.) Age, Thursday.

THE SERVANT WITH CHRISTIAN PRINCIPLES.—On Monday, an Irish servant in the Reverend's house found a wallet in one of the halls, containing a large sum of money and many valuable papers, which had been dropped by a Southern gentleman. The servant carried it to the office of the Reverend, and Mr. Stevens opened up stairs. "I don't know what is in it," Mr. Stevens opened the wallet, and finding the owner's name marked inside, notified him of the "finding." The gentleman

COMMENCEMENT AT NORWICH UNIVERSITY.—The commencement exercises occur on the 26th and 27th of August. Rev. J. W. Park, of the University of Newbury, and Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, of St. Louis, are invited to deliver addresses on the occasion. Prof. Leman, now in Oregon, is soon to return and resume his duties as teacher of Mathematics. Mr. Jackson will bring with him a valuable collection of books. The trustees have a meeting on the 26th of August, at 10 o'clock. A. M. Marston, of the Cornet band, of Lowell, has been engaged for the occasion.

A MAN SHOT.—An altercation took place yesterday, between Francis Arnold and Edward Knight, in Smithfield. Arnold has recently come into possession of a farm, across which there had been a passway for ninety years. Knight refused to cross over this path, and, as a result, was forced to sue. Yesterday, Knight went out with a gun, declaring that he would test the right of the path.

SINGULAR PROCEEDING.—On Sunday last, day before the Kentucky election, Mr. R. Stew-one of the Whig candidates for the Legislature the 11th and 14th Wards of Louisville, was taken and was supposed to be dying, whereupon a numof the Whigs met and nominated J. F. Bullitt, as a candidate, in case Mr. Stewart should die late hour of the night, Mr. S. had become so drowsy, that his friends authorized the withdrawal of his name from the ticket. This accounts, we presume, for the defeat of a portion of the Whig Legislative ticket, as announced by telegraph. (Balt. Sun.)

MAIL ROBBERY.—Intelligence reached here yesterday morning, that a mail-bag had been stolen in the woods, near the junction of the Raleigh Gaston Railroad, North-Carolina, with letters and securities.

FIRE AND DEATH.—A small two-story house, owned by E. A. Nichols, situated on Headley in the north part of the city, was destroyed by yesterday morning, about 5 o'clock, with most of its contents. The second-story was occupied by the very badly burnt. One of the children, a girl, died yesterday afternoon. They were obliged to go through the entry and door, which were all on fire, in their escape from the house. [Prov. Rep. 8th.]

INDIAN COUNCIL.—We understand that an important Council of the Seneca Nation will be held at the Tonawanda Reservation about the 1st of October, at which six or eight hundred warriors from the State and Canada will be present. It is to be a "mourning Council," for the venerable John Black ing, a celebrated Civil Sachem who died last year, and whose obsequies will be performed with orate and impressive ceremony on this occasion. Successor to John Blacksmith is also to be elected by this Council. [Rochester American.]

TREATY WITH PORTUGAL.—We learn from Lisbon, under date of July 18, that Mr. Haddad, our Charge to Portugal, has procured the ratification of that Government to the new treaty, has transmitted it to Washington. The rumor circulated in the English papers, that the arbiters

... Napoleon) on the question of damages for destruction of the privateer Gen. Armstrong, had already decided against the American claim and in favor of Portugal, was without foundation.
